SECOND ANNUAL STUDENT LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP FOCUSED ON STUDIO CULTURE

The College of Architecture and Design hosted its second annual team building and leadership workshop this past January before spring classes began. The workshop was sponsored by Earl Swensson Associates based in Nashville, Tenn. Tom Graves, a recognized business executive with a highly successful career in management on four continents, organized and led the workshop again this year. The day's activities focused on studio culture. As a special treat, Bruce Pearl was the guest speaker.
