Urbana, Illinois.
October 15, 1923.

Dean James D. Hoskins,
University of Tennessee,
Knoxville, Tenn.

My dear Dean Hoskins:

I am very greatly obliged to you for your courteous letter of October 11 and for the copies of the various letters which you were so kind as to send me. I am having copies of these made for each member of the committee. I am sure that this material will be of great help to the committee.

It will not be possible for all the members to visit Knoxville, but one of them at least, probably I, will come.

Thanking you again, my dear Mr. Dean, for your courtesy, I remain

Yours very cordially,

J. W. Garner
