April 17, 1923.

Mr. H. K. Bryson,
Fayetteville, Tennessee.

Dear Mr. Bryson:

I have your letter of the 12th.

I had seen in the paper the resolutions that had been passed at Fayetteville and also at Columbia. I greatly appreciate your expressions of confidence. The newspaper statements that went out from Knoxville were in no sense authorized by the University, and were very lafgely misstatements.

I should certainly like to see you and hope that I may get a chance to visit you some time this summer but the burden of this job that you got me into becomes more and more taxing.

I hope you are well, and with very best wishes to you and yours, I am,

Sincerely yours,

HAM/R
