Memo To: News Source

From: Networker, Nancy Hild, editor

Subject: Newsletter Submissions

The next issue of Networker, quarterly newsletter published by the UTK Commission for Women, will be mailed to readers November 3, 1983. To assure its effectiveness as a vehicle for sharing information important to women at the University, we depend upon sources such as yourself to tell us about upcoming (1) speakers, (2) exhibits, (3) workshops, (4) seminars, (5) courses, (6) meetings, (7) contests, and (8) films. We also attempt to highlight the achievements of women at UTK, that they may serve as role models for others. We would like to know about women who have (1) published a book, (2) received an award or other recognition for outstanding work, (3) received a noteworthy promotion, (4) received a grant or fellowship to work on a notable research project, or (5) been selected to lead or head up anything.

These and other newsworthy tips would be helpful in fulfilling the Commission's goals to better communicate with women at UTK and to represent their interests to the administration. It is the objective of the Commission for Women to function ever more effectively as a women's network, and Networker exists to promote that objective.

Please let us hear from you anytime you learn some useful information. Deadline for the Fall Quarter issue is October 24. Call 974-3455, or write Networker, Room 332, University Center, 1502 W. Cumberland Ave., Knoxville, Tn. 37996. Thank you.
