FULMER ADDRESSES CCI GRADUATES

On May 12, more than 400 students from CCI became graduates of UTK, as many parents, friends, and relatives watched them walk across the stage inside Thompson-Boling Arena.

In his commencement address, former Vol football coach,

Phillip Fulmer, advised graduates to "buckle your chin strap and take on the competition." + Click here for the full story and photos.

KAPPA TAU ALPHA CELEBRATES 100 YEARS

The purpose of the one-day workshop was to help high school journalism programs that want to start a news website or take their publications online. + read more

TAKE A SEAT!

The new auditorium in the College of Communication and Information is complete and getting much use by CCI faculty, staff and students. However, the college's Take a Seat! Campaign to provide financial support for the auditorium renovation, is not quite finished. Forty-seven seats have been spoken for, leaving 51 still available. Don't be left without one!

This is your opportunity to be a part of the College of Communication and Information's future by making an investment in CCI that will live on through the seat you purchase and inscribe with your name. Your gift of $2,000 per seat will be recognized with a nameplate on the arm of the seat. You may choose your seat number (while available) and the inscription. Click here for more information on naming a seat, to find a diagram of the auditorium, and to see photos of the completed project.

Visit Take a Seat! online and reserve your seat today.

BUCHSBAUM PROVIDES SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT FOR OUT-OF-STATE STUDENTS

Karen Buchsbaum (JEM/'75) and her husband, Frederick, have been great supporters of CCI. An estate gift recently made by the couple will provide additional financial underwriting for their already existing endowed scholarship, the Karen and Frederick Buchsbaum Scholarship. This scholarship is designed to provide support for out-of-state students majoring in journalism or public relations at UTK. + read more

BOARD OF VISITORS SPOTLIGHT - ANNE CAPUTO

Anne Caputo comes to UT through her professional connections rather than as a graduate. Anne is currently the Executive Director of Learning and Information Professional Programs for Dow Jones & Company in Washington, DC, and is also an adjunct faculty member at the University of Maryland's College of Library and Information Services.
