CAMPUS EVENTS CELEBRATING WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE
75TH ANNIVERSARY:

THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1995

The UTK Commission for Women invites all members of the University community to participate in a campus celebration of the 75th anniversary of woman suffrage on Thursday, August 24.

WEAR A COMMEMORATIVE SUFFRAGE BUTTON. Pick up a button at the display booth on the concourse outside the University Center.

VIEW VIDEOTAPES ABOUT THE HISTORY OF THE SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT. Stop by the University Center between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Videotapes will be running continuously.

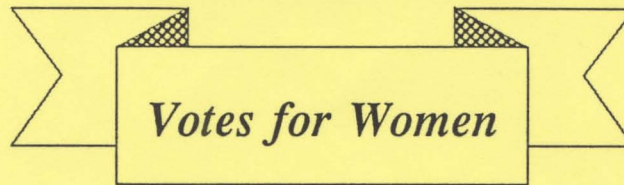

ATTEND THE YELLOW RIBBON BRIGADE AT 7:30 P.M. IN THE UNIVERSITY CENTER AUDITORIUM. This is a one-woman show performed by Candace Anderson, producer of award winning documentaries. Derived in part from The Perfect 36, the show will feature original songs and excerpts from suffragists' diaries. Tickets are $5.00, and the proceeds will go to the East Tennessee Foundation's 75th Suffrage Anniversary Coalition Statue Project. The show is co-sponsored by the UTK Commission for Women and the 75th Suffrage Anniversary Coalition and funded by Woman Suffrage 75, Inc.

VISIT THE DISPLAY ABOUT WOMAN SUFFRAGE ON THE FIRST FLOOR OF THE UNIVERSITY CENTER. Materials will be on display August 21-27.

Events were planned by the Commission for Women Suffrage Celebration Committee with representatives from the Panhellenic Council, Women's Center, Women's Coordinating Council, and Women's Studies Program.

COMMUNITY EVENTS: FRIDAY, AUGUST 25, 1995

The 75th Suffrage Anniversary Coalition Celebration will be on August 25 from 4:30-6:00 p.m. at the Lucille S. Thompson Auditorium, 600 Market Street. There will be a premier of Candace Anderson's television documentary, The Perfect 36. Wilma Dykeman will sign copies of her book, Tennessee Woman: An Infinite Variety, and speak about the suffragists to be featured on the statue. Suffrage memorabilia will be on display. Refreshments will be provided by the League of Women Voters.
