SUMMITT GRADUATES SUMMA CUM LAUDE

Tyler Summitt, son of legendary Coach Pat Summitt, graduated from CCI's School of Communication Studies Summa Cum Laude with a bachelor of arts in only three years. Graduating in a compressed time frame is tough enough, but to do it with high honors while dealing with the added stress associated with his mother's well documented struggle with early onset Alzheimer's is a remarkable achievement. GIVING BACK EVEN WHEN IT'S HARD

Tragedy struck the CCI family in 2005 when CCI Board of Visitors member Mike Hamrick (BS / CS '93) passed away only eighteen days after he had been married. To honor his memory and ensure that his legacy and love of UT and CCI's School of Communication Studies would live on, Hamrick's parents, Ken and Dianne Hamrick have continued to grow and nurture the scholarship fund their son established just prior to his premature death. Cultivated Wisdom - Grover Baker chose an unconventional path to professional harmony – that Since 2008, the state of Tennessee has reduced UT Knoxville's funding by more than 30%. This represents a loss of more than $54 million for the UTK budget. Alumni and friends of the College of Communication and Information have the power to help cover some of this short fall by taking advantage of their company's matching gift program. + read more

FIVE TIPS FOR COMMUNICATING YOUR MESSAGE THROUGH 3-DIMENSIONAL BRANDING

Virginia Kupritz, professor in the School of Communication Studies and an expert on the impact of architectural design on workplace performance and branding, offers the following timely tips for communicating your message through 3-dimensional branding. + read more literally put him in the books.

The only thing music librarian Grover Baker loves more than his job is music. Which is why, 30 years ago, he enrolled at the University of Tennessee sure of one thing: he wanted to be in the Pride of the Southland Marching Band. + read more
