Dear Dr. Brehm:

Thank you for yours of the 28th relative to the application of Earl C. Jackson of Snow Hill, Maryland as well as Rudolph V. McKamey of Knoxville.

You have no choice under the Constitution and statutes of Tennessee except to refuse admission to negro applicants. From a tactical standpoint in preparing for litigation I hope that the Law School or any other graduate school concerned will be filled at the time such applications are considered.

Yours truly

Robert T. Kennerly
