

C A T A L Y S T

A SOCIAL JUSTICE FORUM

Volume 1 | Issue 1 | 2011

CATALYST

A SOCIAL JUSTICE FORUM

Volume 1 | Issue 1 | 2011

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Shane Willson

EDITORS

Landon Bevier

Rachael Gabriel

Taylor Krcek

Alaina Smith

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors would like to thank the Center for the Study of Social Justice (CSSJ) for the gracious funds they provided. We would like to thank Piper Mullins, Lyndy Wibking, Seth Jordan, and Linda Phillips from the Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange (TRACE) for hosting our journal and for sharing their technical expertise. We would also like to thank the Berkeley Electronic Press (BEPress) for their work on Catalyst's website. Creating an online open-access journal would not have been possible without the help of the CSSJ, TRACE, or BEPress.

Additionally, we would like to thank Jarred Elrod for his help in designing our cover and logo. We also thank the Department of Sociology at the University of Tennessee for providing Catalyst's office space. Many sincere thanks are also due to our reviewers and authors. They are shining examples of how the peer review process can turn good manuscripts into great articles.

CATALYST QUICK LINKS

Homepage

Call for Submissions

Book Review Policies

Editorial Policies

CATALYST: A SOCIAL JUSTICE FORUM

Volume 1 | Issue1 | 2011

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INSTANT RACISM Vickie Phipps	1
EDITORS' INTRODUCTION Shane Willson and Rachael E. Gabriel	5
PUSHING ME THROUGH: A POETIC REPRESENTATION Jessica N. Lester and Rachael E. Gabriel	10
EDUCATING FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE IN AMERICA'S NUCLEAR AGE Ian Harris and Charles F. Howlett	20
THE SOUND OF FURY: TEACHING, TEMPERS, AND WHITE PRIVILEGE Tema Okun	52
THE GARDEN IS ALWAYS GREENER... Billy Hall	86
POLISHING TREADMILLS AT MIDNIGHT: IS REFUGEE INTEGRATION AN ELUSIVE GOAL? Woods Nash	114
DO ASK, DO TELL Vickie Phipps	122
RAISING THE POINT Jason Mendez With Critical Commentary by R. Scott Frey and a Response from Jason Mendez	124