Program in Dormitory

June 5, 1956

Mrs. Gretchen L. Bundy
206 West Chilhowie Avenue
Johnson City, Tennessee

Dear Mrs. Bundy:

The Graduate School has notified us of your admission as an unclassified graduate student. It is nice to know of your interest in the Special Education courses and, if you come to the University, I hope you will enjoy your work very much.

I regret that we are not equipped to offer you housing in the women's residence halls. Through the kindness of Mrs. Robinson, Dean of Women at Knoxville College, the following private housing is suggested.

If you will write or call Mrs. Shirley Boyd, (phone 3-2892) 1414 Pickett Avenue, she will be glad to describe the accommodations and discuss the business details. Mrs. Robinson said this is a lovely home and guests of Knoxville College are entertained there. I had a pleasant telephone conversation with Mrs. Boyd and she will expect to hear from you.

If we may help you further, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

Gladys Beach
