INTEREST RATE SET AT 7.25 PERCENT EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009, ON DELINQUENT TAXES COLLECTED OR ADMINISTERED BY THE STATE OF TENNESSEE

C. Richard Phebus, CPA, Finance and Accounting Consultant

The payment of taxes to local municipalities or to the state of Tennessee generally has a due date associated with it. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax, or a portion thereof, on or before the date the taxes are required to be paid, interest is added to the amount of tax due. The commissioner of revenue determines the interest rate for delinquent taxes collected or administered by the state of Tennessee. Sales tax and local business tax are examples of taxes falling into this category.

FORMULA RATE OF INTEREST

T.C.A. § 67-1-801 provides for the rate of interest to be charged on delinquent tax payments. This rate is called the “formula rate of interest” and is determined and set annually by the Tennessee commissioner of revenue. The rate effective July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2010, has been set at 7.25 percent. Municipalities should be aware that the rate is a decrease from the current year (FY 2009).

DELINQUENT BUSINESS TAXES

Municipalities that levy and collect a local business tax should use the 7.25 percent rate of interest to calculate any interest due from taxpayers who file their business tax returns after the delinquent date. Taxes due accrue interest from the delinquent date until paid. For periods prior to the date of tax assessment, interest will accrue at the prevailing rate (7.25 percent) regardless of the taxable period involved (T.C.A. § 67-1-801(a)(2)).

Important Note: The Tennessee General Assembly currently is considering a proposal by the Department of Revenue for all local option business taxes levied in accordance with T.C.A. §§ 67-4-701 et. seq. to be collected by the Department of Revenue. The language of the enabling legislation would implement this proposal upon becoming law, with the commissioner of revenue having broad discretion to transition the administration of the program from July 1, 2009, through October 1, 2010. MTAS recommends that municipalities continue to administer the local business tax program, including notifying Class 3 businesses with a due date of June 30, 2009, until notified otherwise by the Department of Revenue.
