RECOGNITIONS

Robert French, assistant professor in the College of Architecture and Design, has received the H. Patrick Lawson Faculty Teaching Award. French, who has taught in the college for nearly 22 years, was also recognized with an Outstanding Teacher Award at the Chancellor's Honors Banquet.

Fritz Polite, director of the Institute for Leadership, Ethics and Diversity, was recently selected to participate in the Wharton Black Scholars Roundtable II Symposium, sponsored by the Wharton Sport Business Initiative at the University of Pennsylvania. The symposium focused on developing a national agenda to address the past, present and future role of the black athlete in professional and collegiate athletics.

Marketplace Live, a business simulation program, has received a Brandon Hall Silver Award for Excellence in Learning Technology in the category of Best Advance in 3-D or Immersive Learning Technology. The system was developed by Ernie Cadotte, professor of marketing, as a way to engage students by blending textbooks, lectures, games, and movies.

Asia Dixon, a senior architecture student, has won the Gensler African American Internship and Scholarship Competition. Dixon competed against architecture and design students from across the country and was awarded a scholarship for her fifth year in the architecture program and a paid summer internship at one of Gensler's regional offices.

Michael Jungwirth, junior in the College Scholars program, and Nathan Stebbins, junior in biochemistry and cellular and molecular biology, have each received scholarships from the Goldwater Foundation for their final year at UT. Lauren Johnson, junior in chemistry and chemical engineering, received an honorable mention. The Barry M. Goldwater Scholarships are awarded yearly to sophomores and juniors who are pursuing careers in research in mathematics, the natural sciences and engineering.

WANTED: News & Nominations

The UT Office of Research is seeking research news and opportunities, scholarly and professional recognition, and nominations for "Scholar of the Week."

Send items for either News & Opportunities (the green newsletter) or Awards & Recognitions (the gold newsletter) to Craig Cook (ccook10@utk.edu), preferably by the Wednesday preceding the expected publication date.

To nominate a colleague for "Scholar of the Week," send a note to Dennis McCarthy (dmmccarthy@utk.edu).
