BEFORE THE TENNESSEE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

IN THE MATTER OF:

Board of Probation and Parole, Petitioner,

DOCKET NO: 26.41-103023J

Vs.

Shelby Rumsey, Grievant.

INITIAL ORDER

This matter was heard on March 29, 2011, in Nashville, Tennessee before Steve R. Darnell, Administrative Law Judge, assigned by the Secretary of State, Administrative Procedures Division, and sitting for the Tennessee Civil Service Commission. Attorney Karen D. Tolbert represented the Tennessee Board of Probation and Parole (hereinafter the "Board"), and Grievant was represented by attorney Jonathan Stephens with the TSEA. The transcript of the hearing was filed June 2, 2011, and the record closed on July 5, 2011, when the parties filed proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

ISSUE FOR DETERMINATION

Did the Board properly terminate Grievant for posting bond for an offender who was under the Board's supervision?

SUMMARY OF DETERMINATION

It is DETERMINED the Board has proven, by a preponderance of the evidence, that Grievant posted a property bond to secure the release of Antonio Sanders who was incarcerated for violation of his state probation. Sanders was under the Board's supervision at the time. The Board properly terminated Grievant for her conduct. This determination is based upon the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Grievant was employed as a Probation and Parole Officer 2 by the Board for approximately four years until her termination in March 2009. She was stationed at the Board's District office in Charlotte, Tennessee where she was the lead court officer for the Dickson County Circuit Court. This position required various duties, including attending court every time there was a scheduled revocation.

2. The Board supervises persons placed on probation and parole. The duties of a PPO 2 include supervision of parolees and probationers. Grievant was trained regularly on the Board's policies and procedures, including the Board's Code of Ethics.

3. John McGranahan is also a Probation Parole Officer 2 assigned to the Waverly office. Antonio Sanders was under McGranahan's supervision for Schedule II Drugs by Fraud by the Humphreys County Circuit Court.

4. Grievant had been friends with Sanders since they were teenagers and known him for 20 years.

5. McGranahan filed a probation violation against Sanders in March 2008, for not paying his court fines and probation fees. McGranahan then learned that in April 2008, Sanders had been arrested for domestic assault in Nashville. This prompted McGranahan to amend the violation report on Sanders to include the domestic assault charges. The Humphreys County Circuit Court issued a warrant for Sanders' arrest and the judge set his bond at $25,000.

6. In December 2008, McGranahan was notified by a misdemeanor probation officer, and also, a Humphrey's Count Circuit Court Clerk's office employee that Grievant had posted Sanders' bond. McGranahan went to the court clerk's office and confirmed that Grievant had posted a property bond for Sanders' release. He then notified his supervisor Paul Deavers of the issue.

6. Deavers is a Probation Parole Manager 1 (PPM 1) for the Board and works out of the Board's Charlotte office. Deavers is in both Grievant's and McGranahan chain of supervision, but he does not directly supervise Grievant. He also visited the court clerk's office and reviewed Sanders' court file.

7. Located in the clerk's file on Sanders were the following: Amended Violation of Probation Report filed with clerk's office on April 23, 2008, by McGranahan; receipt for recording fee, deed of trust from Register of Deed's office filed May 5, 2008, executed by Shelby Bush and Jason Ramsey; and Full Release of Deed of Trust, executed July 9, 2008. Shelby Bush is Grievant's prior name.

8. The Deed of Trust states that it transfers property in the amount of $25,000 to "Elaine Choate, Circuit Court Clerk of Humphreys County, Tennessee, as Trustee for the State of Tennessee...." This property is conveyed for the following purpose: "To Secure the presence of Antonio Sanders, and now being held the Sheriff of Humphreys County, Tennessee on a state charges of Violation of Probation at all Court appearances in Humphreys County, Waverly, Tennessee, and all subsequent Court appearances in any Court of Humphreys County, Tennessee, as a result of this charge. Antonio Sanders is now being held under at Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000) Dollars Bond, and said Deed of Trust is made to bind Grantors in this amount to secure the presence of the said Antonio Sanders at all appearances of Court to which he is scheduled to appear." (emphasis added).

9. The Board initiated an investigation into Grievant's conduct. During the investigation, Grievant admitted that she signed the bond for Sanders on May 5, 2008. She also admitted that she knew Sanders was on state probation and that McGranahan was his probation officer.

10. In a letter dated February 3, 2009, the Board informed Grievant of its intent to terminate her employment for posting the $25,000 property bond for Sanders. In that letter, the Board alleged Grievant committed the following disciplinary offenses under Department of Human Resources Rules 1120-10-.06: (1) Inefficiency or incompetency in the performance of duties; (2) Negligence in the performance of duties; (4) Failure to maintain satisfactory and harmonious working relationships with the public...; (8) ... conduct unbecoming an employee in the State service; (12) Participation in any action that would in any way seriously disrupt or disturb the normal operation of the agency, institution, department or any other segment of the State service or that would interfere with the ability of management to manage; (15) Acts that would endanger the lives and property of others; and (24) For the good of the service as outlined in T.C.A. 8-30-326. The Board also alleged that Grievant's behavior violated the Board's Policy 202.01, Code of Ethics.

11. Grievant's testimony and version of events was not credible.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. In a fifth step level hearing, an administrative law judge presides to take proof and render an initial order which is subject to review by the Civil Service Commission. T.C.A. §4-5-301.

2. It is a de novo proceeding, and no presumption of correctness attaches to the action of the agency. Big Fork Mining Co. v. Tennessee Water Quality Control Board, 620 S.W. 2d 515, at 521 (Tenn. App. 1981).

3. The burden of proof rests with the Board and the Board must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that: 1) the Grievant acted or failed to act as the Board alleges; 2) the Grievant's action constitutes a disciplinary offense; and 3) the recommended discipline is appropriate for the given offense. Id. at 520. Some instances of misconduct require an elevated level of discipline, even if the employee has no history of prior disciplinary action. Berning v. State, 996 S.W.2d 828, 830 (Tenn. App. 1999).

4. The Department bears the burden of proof in this case. The standard of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. TN. Department of State, Administrative Procedures Division, Rule 1360-4-1-.02(3)(7).

5. Preponderance of the evidence simply means "the greater weight of the evidence or that, according to the evidence, the conclusion sought by the party with the burden of proof is the more probable conclusion." Id.

6. PURPOSE (Rule 1120-10-.01)

To establish standards for the application of disciplinary procedures which will assure fairness and uniformity among agencies and institutions subject to the provisions of these rules.

7. POLICY (Rule 1120-10-.02)

A career employee may be warned, suspended, demoted or dismissed by his appointing authority whenever just or legal cause exists. The degree and kind of action is at the discretion of the appointing authority, but must be in compliance with the intent of the provisions of this rule and the Act. An executive service employee serves at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

8. MINIMUM DUE PROCESS (Rule 1120-10-.03)

(1) Career employees have a "property right" to a position in the classification in which they currently hold career status. Therefore, no suspension, demotion, dismissal or any other action which deprives a regular (career) employee of his "property right" will become effective until minimum due process is provided as outlined below.

(2) Minimum due process consists of the following:

(a) The employee shall be notified of the charges against him. Such notification shall detail times, places, and other pertinent facts concerning the charges and should be in writing.

(b) The notification will provide for the employee to have a predecision discussion with an appropriate manager and will state the mechanism through which such a discussion may be arranged. The employee should be given a reasonable period of time to prepare to answer charges and present information which might influence the manager's decision.

(c) The manager conducting such discussions must be an appointing authority or manager who has direct access to an appointing authority for this purpose.

(d) The meeting outlined above shall be for the purpose of allowing the employee to present information to the manager regarding the disciplinary action under consideration.

(e) The discussion shall be informal. The employees shall have the right to present written statements of witnesses or any other information with regard to the charges. Attendance and participation by persons other than the manager and the employee shall be at the discretion of the manager.

(f) If the employee declines the opportunity to have the discussion or present information, the provisions of this section are deemed to have been met.

(3) The commission shall determine as a preliminary matter to the merits of a grievance, a Grievant's allegation that he or she was denied minimum due process.

9. EXCEPTION TO MINIMUM DUE PROCESS (Rule 1120-10-.04)

When an employee is acting in a dangerous or otherwise threatening manner and must be removed from the workplace immediately, it is not necessary to provide "minimum due process" prior to removal. Minimum due process must be provided after removal as soon as practicable. The employee, in this case, may be placed on leave or on immediate suspension without pay.

10. CAUSES FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION (Rule 1120-10-.05)

Causes for disciplinary action fall into two categories.

(1) Causes relating to performance of duties.

(2) Causes relating to conduct which may affect an employee's ability to successfully fulfill the requirements of the job.

11. EXAMPLES OF DISCIPLINARY OFFENSES (Rule 1120-10-.06)

The following causes are examples of those considered for disciplinary action and should not be considered the only causes of action.

(1) Inefficiency or incompetency in the performance of duties.

(2) Negligence in the performance of duties.

(3) Careless, negligent or improper use of State property or equipment.

(4) Failure to maintain satisfactory and harmonious working relationships with the public and fellow employees.

(5) Habitual improper use of sick leave privileges.

(6) Habitual pattern of failure to report for duty at the assigned time and place.

(7) Failure to obtain or maintain a current license or certificate or other qualification required by law or rule as a condition of continued employment.

(8) Gross misconduct or conduct unbecoming an employee in the State service.

(9) Conviction of a felony.

(10) Willful abuse or misappropriation of State funds, property or equipment.

(11) Falsification of an official document relating to or affecting employment.

(12) Participation in any action that would in any way seriously disrupt or disturb the normal operation of the agency, institution, department or any other segment of the State service or that would interfere with the ability of management to manage.

- (13) Trespassing on the property of any State officer or employee for the purpose of harassment.
- (14) Damage or destruction of State property.
- (15) Acts that would endanger the lives and property of others.
- (16) Possession of unauthorized firearms, lethal weapons, alcohol or illegal drugs on the job.
- (17) Brutality in the performance of duties.
- (18) Refusal to accept a reasonable and proper assignment from an authorized supervisor (insubordination).
- (19) Reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs, or partaking of such on the job.
- (20) Sleeping or failure to remain alert during duty hours.
- (21) Betrayal of confidential information.
- (22) Garnishment of wages for more than one indebtedness.
- (23) Political activity prohibited by T.C.A. Title 2, Chapter 19 (The Little Hatch Act)
- (24) For the good of the service as outlined in T.C.A. 8-30-326. (emphasis added)

12. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINARY ACTION (Rule 1120-10-.07)

- (1) The supervisor is responsible for maintaining the proper performance level, conduct and discipline of the employees under his supervision. When corrective action is necessary, the supervisor must administer disciplinary action beginning at the appropriate step as described.
- (2) Oral Warning. The supervisor will meet privately with the employee to:
 - (a) Review with the employee exactly what is expected on the job and why.
 - (b) Explain to the employee how he has not met requirements and why present conduct or performance is unacceptable.
 - (c) Allow the employee to give reasons for his actions or failure.
 - (d) Make suggestions for correction.
 - (e) Record the date of the discussion and other necessary information for future reference.
 - (f) Written follow-up to the discussion may be forwarded to the employee but is not required. Written follow-up to an oral warning should not be construed as a written warning as described below and will not become part of the employee's official personnel file.
- (3) Written Warning. The supervisor will meet with the employee and:
 - (a) Review the points covered in the oral warning, if an oral warning(s) was administered. The employee will be told that a significant change in his present conduct or performance must be made.
 - (b) Tell the employee he will receive a letter covering the significant points of the discussion to include:
 - 1. What has been expected and how these expectations have not been met.
 - 2. Suggestions for improvement.
 - 3. Indication that failure to improve will lead to further disciplinary action.
 - (c) Review with the organizational unit head the contents of the letter prior to its delivery to the employee by the supervisor.
 - (d) A copy of the written warning may be placed in the employee's official personnel file in the agency personnel office at the discretion of the appointing authority. Any written warning which has been issued to an employee shall be automatically expunged from the employee's personnel file after a period of two (2) years from the date of the letter; provided, that the employee has had no further disciplinary actions with respect to the same area of performance, conduct, and discipline.

(4) Suspension Without Pay.

(a) After minimum due process is provided, a suspension without pay may be issued by the appointing authority for one (1) to thirty (30) days. No employee may be suspended without pay for disciplinary purposes for more than thirty (30) days in any consecutive twelve (12) month period. Suspensions with or without pay of more than thirty (30) days may be issued pending the outcome of an investigation or legal action with approval of the Commissioner.

(b) Before issuance, a written notice of the suspension without pay will be prepared. The notice will contain an account of the circumstances which led to the decision to issue the suspension, the beginning and ending dates of the suspension and information to the employee concerning his rights of appeal as outlined in Chapter 1120-11 of these rules. A copy of the notice will be placed in the employee's official personnel file and a copy will be sent to the Department.

(5) Dismissal.

(a) After minimum due process is provided, an employee may be dismissed by the appointing authority from his position for unacceptable conduct or performance of duties.

(b) Before an employee is dismissed, a written notification detailing the circumstances leading to the decision to dismiss will be prepared. The notice will indicate the effective date and inform the employee of his rights to appeal as outlined in Chapter 1120-11 of these rules. A copy of the notice will be placed in the employee's official personnel file and a copy will be sent to the Department.

(c) Before an employee can be dismissed, he must be given ten (10) calendar days paid notice. During the notice period an employee will not be required to report for duty. The employee's accumulated annual leave balance may be used during this notice period only if dismissal was for gross misconduct.

(6) Transfer or Demotion. If it is determined by the appointing authority that an employee's ability to satisfactorily perform his duties is beyond the capabilities of the employee or the employee has been compromised by notorious conduct to the extent that he is ineffective in his position, the employee may be demoted or transferred to a position that is more appropriate after minimum due process has been provided.

- (3) A grievant may represent himself at any step in the procedure.

ANALYSIS

Grievant's explanation of the events surrounding the posting of Sanders' bond is simply not credible. This is especially true given her experience in the criminal justice system as a probation/parole officer. Her version of the facts is also inconsistent with the deed and other papers she signed to post Sanders' bond, and contrary to her statements to the Board's investigator taken on December 29, 2008.

The Board has shown, by a preponderance of the evidence, that Grievant posted bond for an offender under it supervision, and is subject to discipline for her conduct. Although progressive discipline is preferred, some conduct is so clear and egregious that progressive discipline must be ignored. That is the case at hand. Grievant's conduct was such, that termination is the only appropriate recourse for the Board.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED the Board of Probation and Parole's decision to terminate Grievant is UPHELD.
