

concerts
exhibits
1950-51

DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

N
O
V
E
M
B
E
R

19TH

1950

FOUR

O'CLOCK

A
R
T

B

U

I

I

I

I

I

I

AUDIGIER GALLERY

November 19 - December 7

Daily 2 - 5 p. m. (except Saturdays)

also

Tuesdays and Thursdays 6:30 - 9 p. m.

"A NEW DIRECTION IN INTAGLIO"

Prints by Mauricio Lasansky and his students.

A comprehensive showing of contemporary print techniques. The show includes 71 prints, numerous plates and explanatory notes. Many of the prints are in color, and all of them are vigorous and rich in texture.

The exhibition is being circulated by the Walter Art Center, Minneapolis and the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center.

Most of the items are for sale at modest prices.

JOSEPH COX
C. KERMIT EWING
ALFRED SCIMIED
MARIE HUPER
GEORGE CRESS

Will discuss
EXPERIENCING MUSIC IN PICTURES,

An explanation of some parallels between art and music.

COMMERCIAL DESIGN

An exhibition of work by faculty and students at the University of Georgia.

Contributions for the Fine Arts Scholarship Fund may be left at the table in the outer room. Deserving students in Art and Music will be helped by this fund.

Steinway Piano courtesy of Clark Brothers Piano Company.

Fifth Concert, Sunday, December 3, Four o'clock.
The University Singers, John Carl Tegnell, director, at the Alumni Memorial Auditorium.

N
O
V
E
M
B E
R

19TH

1950

FOUR

O'CLOCK

A

R

T

B

U

I

L

D

I

N

G