Office of the Chancellor

Please join us for a special memorial service to honor the students, faculty, and staff we have lost in the past academic year. The service will be held at 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 30, in the Humanities Amphitheater, across from Hodges Library on the Pedestrian Walkway. In the event of rain, the event will take place in the Alumni Memorial Building Cox Auditorium.

Every member of our Volunteer family is special to us. Our campus community members experience a loss each time someone connected with the university passes away.

This new tradition provides us the opportunity to join family and friends to memorialize members of our Volunteer family who have passed away. The outdoor event will feature music, a reading of the names, and a candle-lighting ceremony.

We hope that you will make plans to attend and encourage others to join you.

Sincerely,

Jimmy G. Cheek
Chancellor
