
The Ewing Art and Architecture Gallery is named in honor of artist and Professor C. Kermit "Buck" Ewing
1919-1976
Ewing initiated the art curriculum on this campus in 1945. As Head of the Department of Art, and advocate of art in the Southeast, he provided leadership during the period of growth from World War II until his death in 1976. His efforts were of paramount importance in the realization of this building.
