

2012 Hardy Liston Jr. Symbol of Hope

ANNAZETTE HOUSTON and CHARLES HOUSTON

The 2012 award goes to Annazette and Charles Houston, whose leadership and vision have been instrumental in the university's promotion and expansion of diversity and equality. They were leaders in organizing the university community in celebration of fifty years of African American achievement. Their work led to memorable events, such as a commemorative walk and the 50th Anniversary Gala, where more than 800 people paid tribute to UT's fifty years of integration.

The Hardy Liston Jr. Symbol of Hope is awarded to faculty/staff/alumni who have demonstrated a commitment to the development of individuals in our society through cultivating and enriching the human mind and spirit.

Presented by the Commission for Blacks, the The Hardy Liston Symbol of Hope Award goes to faculty, staff or friends of the university who demonstrate a commitment to diversity, multiculturalism, and appreciating the differences of people and cultures on our campus.
