Permission for Dissertation Use Agreement

This agreement is made between Emily H. Chaisson and Deeksha Mehta (hereafter referred to as "the Authors") regarding the following authored paper:

“Phenomenological models for determining phase behavior of liposomes from SP-FRET”

1) Authorship and Ownership
   Emily H. Chaisson is the first author and primary contributor to the above-mentioned paper. Deeksha Mehta is a co-author who contributed to portions of the work.

2) Permission for Use
   Emily H. Chaisson grants Deeksha Mehta explicit permission to include the paper, in part or in whole, in her doctoral dissertation. The use must comply with institutional guidelines and proper attribution to all co-authors must be maintained.

3) Acknowledgment of Contributions
   The Authors agree that the paper accurately represents the contributions of each individual. Deeksha Mehta will clearly indicate her contributions within the context of her dissertation, in accordance with institutional and ethical standards.

4) Agreement
   By signing below, both Authors confirm their consent to the terms outlined in this agreement along with their P.I., Frederick Heberle.
