Heather,

You are correct - the Registrar's Office is notified through the Graduate Council Curricular Process.

Admissions:

- College of Nursing Advisors were notified at the College Assembly meeting on March 18th. The College Assembly meeting is a college-wide meeting attended by faculty (attendance is mandatory) and staff (attendance is optional/mandatory) dependent upon role). Attendance is mandatory for the Executive Director of Academic Advising and Enrollment Management– all advisors report to the Executive Director of Academic Advising and Enrollment Management who disseminates information to the Office of Student Services team members.

- Graduate admissions should also be notified through the Graduate Council Curricular Process.

Recruiters:

- College of Nursing Advisors also serve as recruiters for the College of Nursing.
- We are not aware of any University recruiters outside of the College of Nursing.

Others (Etc.):

- Graduate School Graduation Specialists: should also be notified through the Graduate Council Curricular Process.

Does the above provide the information needed?

Kind regards,
Melissa

Hello, Heather.

I am reviewing the program closure noted above, and I have an initial question of clarification: how were others in the academic community (Registrar, admissions, recruiters, etc.) made aware of the closure?

Thank you, in advance, for your assistance.
