THE TRADITION OF TAAST WEEK SPONSORED BY GRESHAM SMITH & PARTNERS

TAAST, The Annual All-college Spring Thing, has a wonderful tradition of many decades in the college and this year was sponsored by Gresham Smith & Partners. TAAST week this year included many of the same events as years' past, such as the annual Kickball Tournament, the Silent Auction, the Date Auction, the General Shale Lecture, the Beaux Arts Ball, the Interior Design Showcase and Interview Days.

HNEDAK BOBO GROUP SPONSORS COLLEGE DESIGN COMPETITION

Hnedak Bobo Group (HBG) recently established the Hnedak Bobo Group Global Design Award in the College of Architecture and Design. The scholarship program is design-oriented, rather than need-based, and will be awarded to a rising 5th year architecture student or team of students for exceptional work completed during a study abroad program. The winner of the $5,000 award will be announced each year during the fall semester.

ARCHITECTURE PROFESSORS BREATHE LIFE INTO HISTORIC KNOXVILLE CEMETERY

Architecture professors Katherine Ambroziak, Brian Ambroziak, Ted Shelton and Tricia Stuth have teamed up with the Knoxville Re-animation Coalition (KRC) on a restoration project at Odd Fellows Cemetery in East Knoxville. They will work with KRC and other members of the community to design a restored and reanimated cemetery. They held an illumination kick off event in late February to introduce KRC and their project to the East Knoxville community.
