ETHIOPIA: THE STATE OF TERROR AND WAR IN THE HORN OF AFRICA

ASAFA JALATA, Ph.D.
The University of Tennessee – Knoxville
The 2007 Eritrean Festival, July 11, Washington, DC
INTRODUCTION

- Eritrea as a revolutionary model and its role in bringing peace, democracy, and stability
- The importance of strategically allying with Oromia and other nations
- Two central issues: (1) Global connections, terrorism, and war
- (2) No peace and stability in the region without removing the Tigrayan-led Ethiopian government
BACKGROUND-1

- Five centuries of conflicts and wars in the region
- International dimensions of these conflicts and wars
- Both Arabs and the Ottoman Empire dominated the region before the arrival of France, Britain, and Italy
• The partition of the Horn of Africa
• The colonization of Eritrea by Italy
• The colonization of Oromia by Abyssinia/Ethiopia and European imperialism
• Consequences of the alliance of Ethiopian colonialism and European imperialism
THE EMERGENCE & MAINTENENCE OF THE “MODERN” ETHIOPIAN STATE

- Formed, consolidated and maintained primarily through state terrorism, war, and global connections
- Owned by Amhara-Tigrayan warlords and elites
- Racialized state
- Successive “authoritarian-terrorist” governments with the help of global powers, such as the U.S.
THE U.S. AND THE ETHIOPIAN STATE

- Promotes racist policy and disregards the principles of self-determination, democracy, and human rights
- Supports the maintenance of the Meles regime at any cost
- Ignores Ethiopian state terrorism, massive human rights violations, and war
ETHIOPIAN STATE TERRORISM AND WAR

- Successive Ethiopian regimes and state terrorism
- The TPLF/EPRDF government, state terrorism and war
- The Meles regime as a mercenary state
- Consequences of state terrorism and war
- The necessity of removing the Meles government
CONCLUSIONS-1

- The significance of defending Eritrean sovereignty and independence
- The importance of strategic alliance with the colonized nations, such as Oromia
- Eritrea as a beacon of freedom, and Oromia as a hope of democracy, stability and development in the Horn of Africa
CONCLUSIONS-2

- Long live the sovereignty and independence of Eritrea!
- Long live the mutual solidarity of the peoples of Eritrea and Oromia!
- Peace for Eritrea and liberation for Oromia!