MARCH 2010

COLLEGE NEWS

LUTHER NAMED CCI ASSOCIATE DEAN

On March 1, Catherine Luther officially became the new associate dean for academic programs for CCI. Luther, as interim coordinator of the college's interdisciplinary graduate programs and JEM associate professor, had taken on additional interim administrative duties for the college since January when her predecessor, Sally McMillan, was named vice provost for academic affairs. + read more

BB&T/MARTHA S. WALLEN CLASSROOM DEDICATED

On Friday, March 5, in conjunction with the college's Spring Board of Visitors meeting, CCI held a ceremony to recognize and thank BB&T for establishing the BB&T/Martha S. "Missy" Wallen Dean's Enrichment Fund. The $100,000 gift will be used to support a number of current and future needs of the college including visiting scholars, travel to disseminate faculty/graduate student research results and facility upgrades. + read more

THE COLLEGE FUND

Not happy with your tax return this year?

Charitable contributions are a great way to make a significant difference for the College of Communication and Information while also lowering your taxable income. One way to give to the college is to make a gift to the College Fund. This Dhyana earned her Bachelor of Science degree from Baruch College at the City University of New York. She went on to earn a master's degree and a Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale. She is currently a Professor of Journalism at Florida A&M University (FAMU).
