Repts etc. return. Dean McDermott says he is preparing a bill for the Tenn. Legislature requiring the public printer (or whoever it is in charge) to deliver to the Law Library (or U. of T.?) six copies of Tenn. Rpts and of Acts as they appear free of charge. Says law schools usually provide a set for each instructor. There are 5 now - the additional copies will be kept for future additions to the faculty and for duplicate sets in Law library; as it grows more than one will be needed. One set will go to the Carnegie Library. Miss Fay asks me to notify the Law Library staff that our postponed library meeting will be held Nov. 18.
