Research & admin . . .

Wes Hines, professor in nuclear engineering, has been named interim associate dean for research and technology, temporarily filling the position left by Wayne Davis' move to interim dean of the College of Engineering. Hines joined the college in 1995 as a research assistant professor. His interests include artificial intelligence, surveillance and diagnostics, and other fields related to monitoring and controlling nuclear reactors.

Bruce Robinson, professor emeritus in civil and environmental engineering has been named interim head of UT's department of industrial and information engineering.

. . . & other accomplishments

Jayne Wu, assistant professor in electrical engineering and computer science, was honored with the Chancellor's Award for Professional Promise in Research and Creative Activity at the recent honors banquet. She also received the Angie Warren Perkins Award from the UT Commission for Women.

Daniel Magilow, assistant professor in German, will attend a six-week seminar this summer on "The Technology of Memories: Collective Traumatic Remembrance in Modern Germany." Magilow's participation is funded by a grant from the German Academic Exchange Service. The seminar will be held at Cornell University.

Caula Beyl, dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, has been named a fellow of the American Society of Horticultural Science.
