FIVE TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGNS

By Dr. Candace White, associate professor in CCI's School of Advertising and Public Relations

1) Set a campaign goal that can be stated in one sentence. A successful campaign begins with an articulated purpose and specific outcomes. The goal greatly appreciated! Donations made to this fund are used for many purposes including helping the college offset some of the budget cuts it has had to make in response to major reductions in state funding for the college and university.

If you have not already made your annual contribution to the College Fund, please consider doing so today. Click here to make a donation.

is where you want to be when the campaign is finished. When you reach that point, the campaign needs to have done something tangible to serve the goals of the organization and to move it forward. + read more
