THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
KNOXVILLE 37916
OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR

January 22, 1973

Mr. Hardy Liston
Associate Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
110 Administration Building
Campus

Dear Hardy:

This letter is to confirm your appointment as chairman of the Task Force on Blacks at The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. I want to express genuine appreciation for your willingness to accept this important responsibility. Your counsel and good judgment will be exceedingly helpful as we seek to address effectively the issues and problems related to Blacks on this campus.

It is our wish that the work of the Task Force contribute to the development of an environment within the University in which the full potential of Blacks may be realized. For this reason the attached charge to the Task Force is broad and general. Such an environment is necessary to assure fullest development of all individuals in the academic community and to maximize their contributions to the attainment of the University's educational goals. You will have as chairman of the Task Force the opportunity to bring these goals closer to reality.

Again, thank you for accepting this appointment. If you have questions about the Task Force, please do not hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely,

Archie R. Dykes
Chancellor
