Dear Dr. Kuipers:

Would you please provide me with a statement specifying the extent to which you have sought or are seeking women and black candidates for the positions which you now have open in either replacement or new positions in your department?

This statement should be sent to me in duplicate no later than April 1, 1976. I would also appreciate comments regarding any relevant activities such as the training and development of doctoral students to contribute to the potential supply of professionals.

Sincerely,
