CHANGES IN FEDERAL AND STATE REIMBURSEMENT RATES FOR TRAVEL

Dick Phebus, Finance and Accounting Consultant

FEDERAL RATES EFFECTIVE
 OCTOBER 1, 2010

Tennessee cities that elect to reimburse for official travel using the federal reimbursement rates should note that the federal government has increased per diem reimbursement rates effective October 1, 2010. Cities may wish to update their travel policies to reflect this change. These rates are effective until September 30, 2011.

The FY2011 standard CONUS (continental United States) rate for lodging has been increased to $77. The M&IE (meals and incidental expenses) rate remains at $46.

While the standard CONUS lodging rates increased from the previous rate of $70, the federal rate also changed for select cities in Tennessee. The table below lists those changes. Nashville again topped the list at $110, with other select cities falling below $100 in lodging expense. M&IE rates for the first and last days of travel are calculated at 75 percent of the authorized daily rates.

| CITY OR LOCATION              | COUNTY     | LODGING | M&IE  | TOTAL | MIE FIRST/LAST DAY AT 75% |
|-------------------------------|------------|---------|-------|-------|---------------------------|
| Brentwood/Franklin            | Williamson | $ 94   | $ 56 | $150 | $ 42.00                  |
| Chattanooga                   | Hamilton   | $ 88   | $ 56 | $144 | $ 42.00                  |
| Knoxville                     | Knox       | $ 84   | $ 56 | $140 | $ 42.00                  |
| Memphis                       | Shelby     | $ 96   | $ 61 | $157 | $ 45.75                  |
| Nashville                     | Davidson   | $110   | $ 66 | $176 | $ 49.50                  |
| Oak Ridge                     | Anderson   | $ 90   | $ 46 | $136 | $ 34.50                  |
| All other Tennessee locations |            | $ 77   | $ 46 | $123 | $ 34.50                  |

CHANGES IN FEDERAL AND STATE REIMBURSEMENT RATES FOR TRAVEL

Meals and incidental expenses are broken down as shown in the following table for locations in Tennessee.

| M&IE        | $ 46 | $ 56 | $ 61 | $ 66 |
|-------------|-------|-------|-------|-------|
| Breakfast   | 7     | 9     | 10    | 11    |
| Lunch       | 11    | 13    | 15    | 16    |
| Dinner      | 23    | 29    | 31    | 34    |
| Incidentals | 5     | 5     | 5     | 5     |

These federal per diem rates apply to all locations within or entirely surrounded by the corporate limits of the key city as well as the boundaries of the county, including other municipalities within the county. Additionally, the federal standard mileage rate for reimbursements currently is 50 cents per mile until December 31, 2010.

Federal reimbursement rates for out-of-state travel vary from state to state. A complete listing of federal per diem rates for FY 2011 can be found at U.S. General Services Administration (www.gsa.gov).

STATE OF TENNESSEE RATES
 EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2010

The following table lists lodging rates for Tennessee cities for use by cities that elect to use the state of Tennessee reimbursement rates. The state reimbursement policy states that employees should use the U.S. General Services Administration CONUS rates provided by the federal government. The state travel policy, revised October 1, 2010, and effective until modified or withdrawn, can be found in the Tennessee Comprehensive Travel Regulations. The state of Tennessee general reimbursement rate for standard mileage effective January 1, 2010 is 46 cents per mile.

In-state Travel Lodging

FINANCE OFFICE REVIEW

Please review your city’s travel policy to determine the applicable reimbursement rates for lodging and M&IE. If your city’s travel policy makes reimbursements based on the “state” or “federal” rate, the changes noted above may take effect without any action by your city board. If, however, your city’s policy establishes specific reimbursement rates for lodging and meals, you may need to amend the travel policy to reflect the above changes in regard to other travel expenses.

For more information, please contact the MTAS management or finance consultant in your area.
