Dear Lura:

Thank you for your thoughtful comments and reaction concerning representatives of the Commission for Blacks meeting with the Board of Deans. I was particularly pleased to receive the information concerning the College of Home Economics and your efforts, in particular, to facilitate and enhance Black representation and participation in professional state and national associations.

Please keep in mind that the Commission for Blacks is depending on you and the College to continue to take steps to address the serious issues affecting Black faculty, staff, and students as outlined in the Commission for Blacks' Interim Report to Chancellor Reese. The Commission feels that it is crucial for us to work together.

Sincerely,

Betty J. Cleckley, Ph.D.
