I do not attempt to warrant any title but, after a careful examination of the records, I report this title as vested in J. P. Moore, subject alone to State and County taxes for the year 1921, which amount to $32.78.

The recitation in the deed of M. C. Duncan and others to Fannie J. Duncan, wherein it is recited that there are only four children born to Fannie J. and J. C. Duncan, and that J. C. Duncan was at that time deceased, if this be true the title to this property is good.
