Fund of the Commission for Blacks

Subject: Meeting of April 25, a confirmation

This is to confirm the message which most of you will have received by phone; namely, that we shall have a meeting on Monday, April 25, at 1:30 p.m. in Room 502 of McClung Tower. Those of you we have been able to contact by phone have indicated that it will be possible for you to be there. I hope very much that you can. The meeting should not last more than an hour.

Let me express appreciation for your willingness to participate in the work and deliberations of the Ad Hoc Committee for Minority Scholarships and Assistance Fund of the UTK Commission for Blacks. We should not have to meet often, but we do have an important mission that we must pursue with diligence: to review the status and functioning of scholarship and financial assistance funds available to minority students at UTK, and to think of ways in which the size of the funds can be enlarged and the functioning of the funds made more effective in behalf of minority students. So put on your best "thinking caps" and energize your unlimited capacity for imagination, and let's get at it!

Cheers!
