SUBJECT: Response to the Status of Women at UTK Report

Norma, I really enjoyed our meeting last week and Bill and I look forward to working with you and the Commission for Women this year. As promised, here is a anticipated schedule of responses from our office to the Commission for Women's report.

We are anxious to respond to the issues you raised quickly while still giving thoughtful consideration to each area of concern. Also, we would like to ensure that each response is created and discussed by the Chancellor's Staff.

To this end, we have developed the following schedule for responses from the Chancellor's Office. We hope that by responding in parts, we can begin to systematically address important issues related to improving the campus climate and our understanding of gender-related concerns.

Issue Raised	Anticipated Response Date
Sexual Harassment	Sept. 16, 1994
Safety	October 10, 1994
Student Issues	November 8, 1994
Part-time Issues	December 5, 1994
Advancement, Professional Development, and Representation	January 9, 1995
Salary	February 6, 1995
Child Care	March 6, 1995
