Dear Dr. Prados:

I thought you would be interested in reviewing the attached minutes which cover The Commission for Blacks' recent meeting with Dean Willis Armistead and Assistant Dean William Grau. The minutes reveal the key issues and difficulties which the College of Veterinary Medicine experiences in recruiting blacks, both as students and members of the faculty.

Out of concern about this situation, several members of the CFB, namely, William Cole, Luther Kindall, Stanley Lusby, John Morrow, and I, would like to meet informally with you and Associate Vice President Nebraska Mays. Perhaps we could get together for lunch.

Please let me know when it will be convenient for you to meet with us.

Sincerely,

Betty J. Cleckley
Chairperson,
The Commission for Blacks
