RECOGNITIONS

Dick Allington, professor of literacy studies in the Graduate School of Education in the College of Education, Health, and Human Sciences, has been named to the editorial review board of the Journal of Educational Psychology. Allington studies reading/learning disabilities and is the co-editor with Anne McGill-Franzen of the Handbook of Reading Disability Research.

Michael Best, associate professor of chemistry, will be serving on the editorial advisory board of the journal Chemistry and Physics of Lipids.

Brad Fenwick, professor of pathobiology in the UT College of Veterinary Medicine, has been named a Jefferson Science Fellow by the U.S. State Department. He was one of 13 scientists chosen to advise the State Department in the 2011-12 academic year and is the first UT scholar and first veterinarian chosen for the fellowship.

Brent Mallinckrodt, professor of counseling psychology, is the 2011 recipient of the American Psychological Association Division 44 Evelyn Hooker Award for Distinguished Contribution by an Ally. The award acknowledges exceptional research, clinical practice, education and training, public advocacy, and/or leadership that contributes to depathologizing and destigmatizing people with minority sexual orientations.

The Society of Research Administrators International has named Robert Porter an SRA International Distinguished Faculty, recognizing him as an exemplary teacher, scholar, and research administrator. Porter is the director of research development for the UT Office of Research.
