6 June 1916.

Reverend H.W.Stough,
733 North Fifth avenue,
Knoxville, Tennessee.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of June 6 is received. I thank you for your attention to the matter. I will call a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees at my office at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow, Wednesday, morning, and will be glad at that time to see the Executive Committee of the Stough Evangelistic Campaign. It is necessary for us to handle the matter early in the day as I will have to leave for Memphis tomorrow night to confer the degrees at the Commencement Exercises of our professional schools there on Thursday.

Very truly yours,

President.
