OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

March 31, 1962

Dr. John C. Hodges, Coordinator
Library Development Program
The University of Tennessee

Dear John:

In looking over the second report of the Library Development Program, I find myself again completely amazed--and delighted!-- with the progress and results of this wonderful movement. As you know, our Library was receiving very few gifts before the program was started, and consequently it had fallen far behind libraries at comparable institutions which had been the recipients of private philanthropy. Now that our Development Program is under way, the University's Library is making great strides toward that coveted goal of one million volumes!

If it were possible, I would like to talk personally with our friends whose names appear in the Report for 1961 and thank them for their gifts--small or large, immediate or pledged--which are helping the University reach greatness. Many of the donors have responded many times with money, books, and manuscripts, and our appreciation for their continuing support is equalled only by our deep gratitude for their heart-warming interest and concern.

The University of Tennessee is fortunate indeed to have these kind and generous people working for her enrichment and growth.

Sincerely yours,

Andy

President

A MARK OF A GREAT UNIVERSITY IS AN EXCELLENT LIBRARY

The Library Development Program, sponsored jointly by the Development Council and the Alumni Association, is a continuing effort with a stated aim of "one million books for the University Libraries."

From the day in October, 1959, when the program was launched, until December 31, 1961, the libraries of the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, Memphis, and Martin have been enriched by gifts of $35,324.89 in cash and 13,523 books, manuscripts, and related library materials, donated by 2,164 individuals and organizations. Fifteen gifts of $1,000 have been given by eleven LIBRARY PATRONS, and forty-four donations of $100.00 or more were received from thirty-eight LIBRARY DONORS. Six endowments have been set up. Twelve living persons have been honored and 101 memorialized, by individual or group gifts or endowments.

Progress in 1961

During the second year of the program, $11,303.12 and 4,568 books, manuscripts, and other library materials were received from 733 people. Four of the five PATRONS for 1961 were repeaters, and so were six of the twenty DONORS.

Four endowments were begun; seven persons were honored; thirty-three were memorialized.

Outstanding among the gifts of books and other materials were those made to the Special Collections Library by Mrs. St. George Sioussat (Andrew Johnson papers and Tennesseana), Miss Ellen LeNoir (Ramsey papers), and Mrs. Grace Reeves and Mrs. Robert W. Kennedy (Ruskin papers). These are all of great interest and value to writers and students of Tennessee history.

Other notable additions were made by Miss Ida Adelaide Anders, 75 volumes of costume history; Mrs. John Clifford Folger, 150 books and 200 periodical issues, on art, architecture, and general interest subjects; International Nickel Company, 626 volumes from the library and in memory of the late V. N. Krivobok; and Miss Lona Coe Johnston, 600 volumes in memory of Miss Mamie C. Johnston.

John M. Smartt (right), Alumni Association secretary, presents a check for the purchase of books to William H. Jesse, director of libraries.

Dr. John C. Hodges, head of the English department and program coordinator for Library Development, examines new books for the library.

SCOPE OF THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The University of Tennessee owns 670,257 cataloged volumes: 581,266 of them in Knoxville; 54,697 in Memphis; 31,451 in Martin; and 2,843 in the Division of University Extension.

The Knoxville book collection is located in the James D. Hoskins Library and in seven branch libraries. There are also a few small laboratory and office collections.

In Martin, the College Library serves all departments. Its resources include, aside from its cataloged volumes, a great many audio-visual aids, such as micro-text, films, and sound recordings.

The books owned by the Extension Division are housed in the various centers throughout the state, and in the special School of Social Work Library in Nashville.

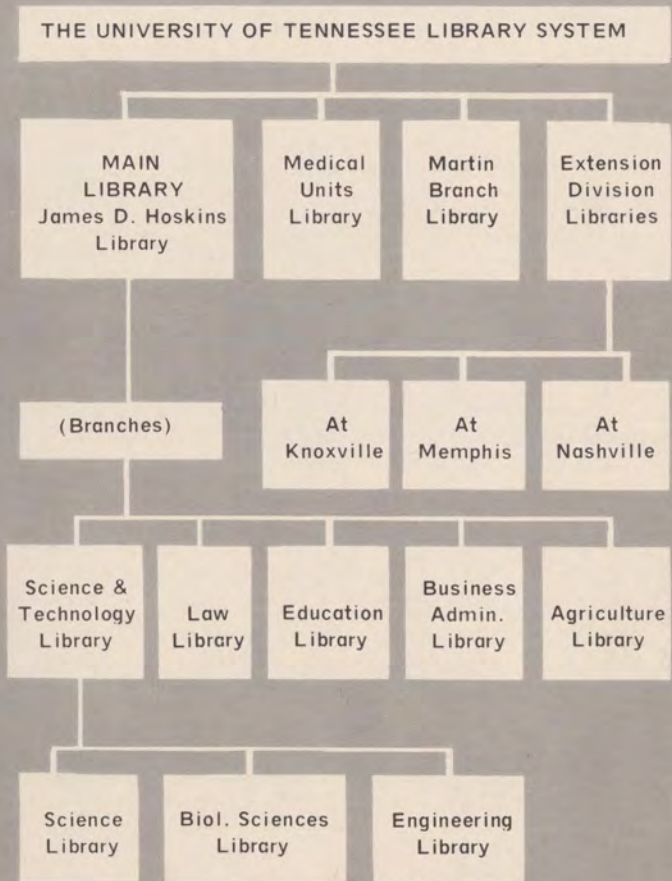

This is the James D. Hoskins Library in Knoxville (called the "Main Library"). It contains administrative offices, order and technical work areas, bibliographical and reference collections, the Undergraduate Library, the Special Collections Library, conference and seminar rooms, and faculty studies; it houses 402,453 books and will seat 1,179 readers.

The Mooney Memorial Library in Memphis, having undergone extensive renovation and remodeling, is now more adequately equipped to serve its clientele from the Medical Units of The University of Tennessee. This Library, shown at left, owns 54,697 volumes and subscribes to nearly 1,000 periodical titles.

Rare books, on display in the Special Collections Room of the Main Library at Knoxville, are among gifts to the Library Development Program.

ENDOWMENTS

ELLIS AND ERNEST LIBRARY ENDOWMENT   $500.00

Established December, 1961, by gift of Ellis and Ernest Drug Stores. Will be used to purchase books in fields of general interest.

HAMILTON NATIONAL BANK OF KNOXVILLE LIBRARY ENDOWMENT       $1,000.00

Contributions and pledges honored in 1961 amounted to $1,247.00.

Gifts That Build for Future Greatness

MAMIE C. JOHNSTON
MEMORIAL LIBRARY FUND $2,174.00

H. S. WALTERS ENDOWMENT $1,000.00

Established May, 1960, by gift of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. "Hub" Walters, in memory of his parents, the Reverend John M. and Lula Franklin Walters. To be used for books in fields of general interest.

MEMORIALS

Many people chose a useful and enduring method of paying respect to friends, relatives, and colleagues by providing library books as memorials. Each book given or bought with memorial funds bears a special memorial bookplate which gives the names of both the donor and the person being memorialized. These books will be used, and their origins noted, by many, many students in the years to come.

HOW YOU MAY HELP

1. GIVING BOOKS

Gifts of books may be sent, with an accompanying letter or note, to the Director of Libraries, The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. If the gift is a sizable collection, you may wish to call or correspond with the Director of Libraries regarding shipping arrangements.

TO WILL BOOKS YOU NEED ONLY TO HAVE A SIGNED CODICIL IN YOUR OWN HANDWRITING:

"I leave my books (or, if you prefer, "whatever books my heirs do not wish to keep") to The University of Tennessee Library."

2. GIVING CASH TO BUY BOOKS

Cash gifts should be made payable to The University of Tennessee Library and sent to the Director of Libraries.

3. PROVIDING ENDOWMENTS

Gifts of endowments may be made now or included in the provisions of a will. The advice of an attorney or trust officer is generally desired in setting up endowment funds. The University will offer whatever assistance is requested.

Bookplate Acknowledgments

Names of those giving to the library will appear on bookplates placed in the books that are given or purchased with gift funds.

Books as Memorials

Special bookplates are available for books given as memorials. These plates carry the names of those giving and of those memorialized.

All gifts, of funds and of value of books given, are tax deductible. For further information write William H. Jesse, Director of Libraries, The University of Tennessee, Knoxville.
