APPEALS COMMITTEE ANNUAL REPORT

Readmissions and Reinstatement Recap, Fall 2008 through Summer 2009

Dismissal Appeals Overview

This year, we witnessed an increase in both the number of academic dismissals and the percentage of cases appealed.

Number of Academic Dismissals
School Year	Total Dismissals	# Appeals	% of Dismissals Appealed
2008-09	824	92	11.2%
2007-08	757	65	8.6%
2006-07	671	72	10.7%

Dismissal Appeal Decisions
School Year	# Appeals	# Granted	# Denied	% Granted
2008-09	92	22	70	24%
2007-08	65	18	47	28%
2006-07	72	30	42	42%

For students dismissed for the first time, the new policy (2007-08) reduced the amount of dismissal time from a full year to one semester. This accounts for the sharp decrease in percentage of appeals granted for first time dismissals the past two years.

Appeals from Students Dismissed for the First Time
Year	# Appeals	# Granted	# Denied	% Granted
2008-09	61	10	51	16%
2007-08	48	11	37	23%
2006-07	67	29	38	43%

Appeals from Students Dismissed for Two or More Times
Year	# Appeals	# Granted	# Denied	% Granted

2006-07	5	1	4	20%

Readmissions Overview

Students previously dismissed more than once must appear before the Committee in person to discuss their academic plans, study strategies, and ways in which they have positioned themselves for success at UT.

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

We are distinguishing undergraduate from graduate courses. These courses are currently taught under a 400 number and combined with the same course number in the both the Graduate and Undergraduate catalogs. However, the 500 level course number reinforces to students and faculty that graduate content and expectations are higher. All graduate programs in the College will have only 500 numbers. Landscape Architecture, in a similar Masters program uses only 500 numbers. This also allows for easier cross-registration between our programs. Graduate students under the current system are confused about which 400 level courses are available for graduate credit. This makes our system much more consistent.

DROP

401 Architectural History/Theory I (3)

402 Architectural History/Theory II (3)

335 Structures in Architecture I (3)

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

These courses are currently numbered at the undergraduate level only. We are distinguishing undergraduate from graduate courses in our revised curriculum for the MArch. 401, 402, 435, 436, 346 are required courses for the MArch, and are available ONLY to Masters students. They are being replaced with graduate numbered courses. We had much cleaning up to do.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES NOT TAUGHT IN FOUR OR MORE YEARS

TO BE DROPPED FALL 2010

Note: If courses are cross-listed and the primary course is dropped, the secondary course(s) will also be dropped. Courses with * are available for graduate credit and will be removed from the Graduate Catalog if dropped. Courses with † are on the General Education List.
