THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
KNOXVILLE 37916
OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
July 28, 1966

Dear Friends of the Library:

Thanks to your generosity and that of the state, this has been our best year in developing library resources appropriate for a university which has the third largest graduate school in the South and Southwest. If the increase continues proportionately, the library will become an asset that we can compare proudly with the best. In holdings we are still behind several distinguished university libraries in neighboring states (notably North Carolina and Texas), but the improvement rate is most encouraging, especially when you realize that state and federal library appropriations are increasing fast, too.

The following is a summary of gifts for library development over the past six years:

- $ 24,021.77 and 8,955 books (First Report, 18 months)
- 11,303.12 and 4,568 books (Second Report, 12 months)
- 23,029.12 and 5,081 books (Third Report, 18 months)
- 38,684.60 and 5,088 books (Fourth Report, 12 months)
- 54,698.73 and 8,342 books (Fifth Report, 12 months)
- 88,191.19 and 4,496 books (Sixth Report, 12 months)
- $239,928.53 and 36,530 books (Total, six Reports)

Library endowments for the past three years have been as follows:

Total endowments as of June 30, 1964 (revised)	$100,345.96
Total endowments as of June 30, 1965 (revised)	$145,429.29
Total endowments as of June 30, 1966	$201,603.41

Professor Emeritus John C. Hodges acts in no manner like a retired professor. His zest and activity as voluntary Coordinator for Library Development are immensely stimulating to all his associates. He, President Holt, and the whole University family gratefully anticipate your continued interest and investment in the UT Library.

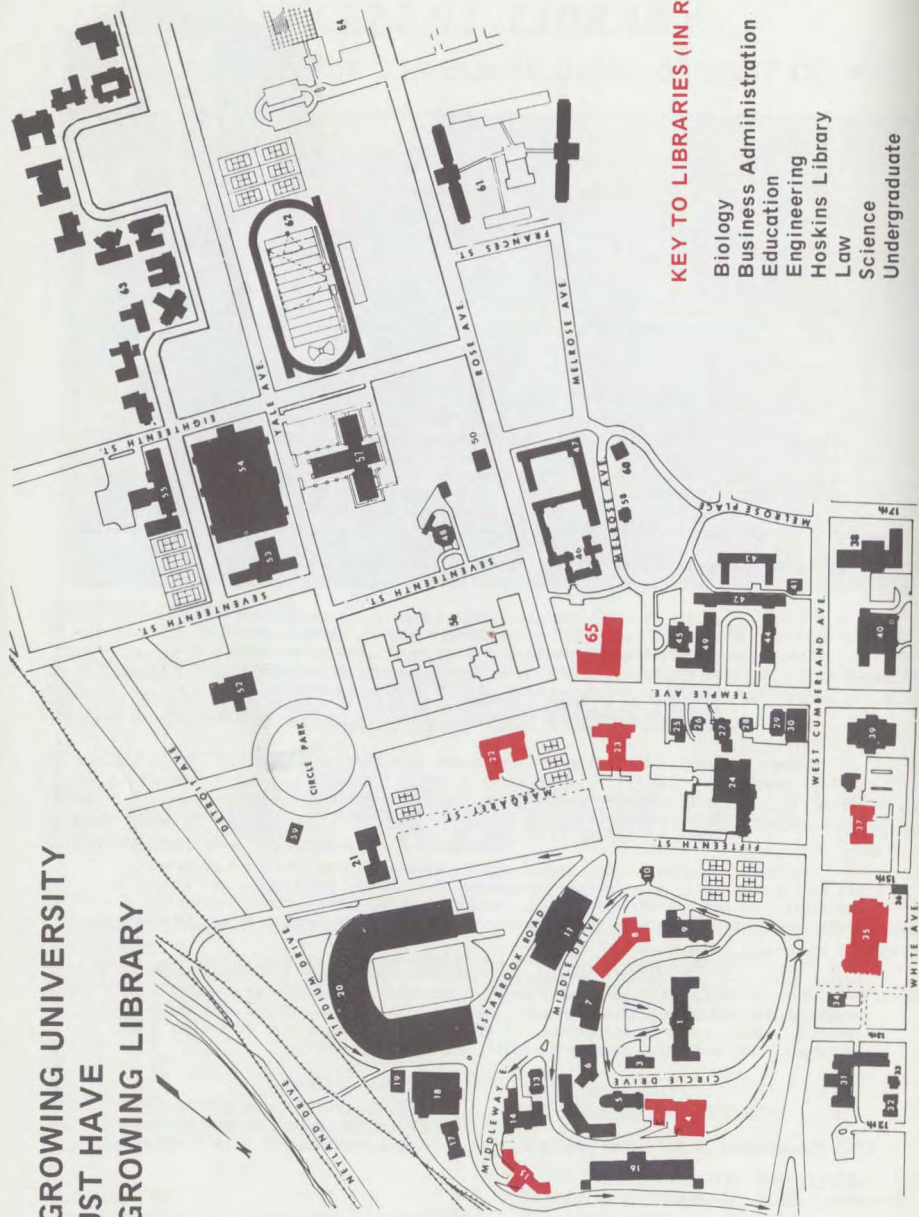

Soon after this report reaches you the University will begin constructing a large, beautiful, air-conditioned library for undergraduates on the hill where the Faculty Club now is, the old Shields home. This library will have completely open stacks so as to invite students to live, move, and have their being in the midst of inviting books. It is by design that it will be in the very center of the expanding UT campus. We invite you to help stock it, and to come see it!

Sincerely yours,
Herman E. Spivey

William F. (Bill) Regas, of the Regas Restaurant, marks his Century Club Check for the Library.

The total amount of contributions given by Library Patrons and Donors during the twelve months ending June 30, 1966, is $83,765.19.

LIBRARY ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Endowments are carefully invested funds to provide yearly income for the purchase of the most needed books as long as the University may last—to serve countless generations of students.

Any gift to the University may be designated (1) as an addition to any one of the following endowment funds or, if substantial, (2) as the beginning of a separate endowment fund.

Investment Pool. Unless the donor prefers some other arrangement, each endowment is given the advantage of sharing in The University of Tennessee Consolidated Investment Pool, a diversified portfolio of high grade common stocks and bonds.

Life Income Agreement. To provide a deferred library endowment, a donor may give money, securities, or property in exchange for a legal contract whereby the University will pay to the donor (and one other beneficiary, if desired) all income twice yearly as long as he (or the other beneficiary) may live. For the year the contract is made, the donor is entitled to a charitable deduction, the amount determined by his age—for example, 48% of the total gift at age fifty, 83% at age eighty. If the charitable deduction is more than can be used in the current year, it can be carried forward for the five succeeding years.

When Mr. and Mrs. James S. Blank sent twenty-five dollars to the Library to buy books in memory of Mrs. Caroline Smith Doe, the librarian promptly notified Mr. Doe of the memorial to his wife and sent a copy of this letter (see below) to Mr. and Mrs. Blank along with a thank you letter. Each book purchased for the memorial carried the bookplate shown on page 7 . (For information needed by the Library when memorials are requested, please see back cover.)

Mr. William B. Doe
1403 Cumberland Drive
Knoxville, Tennessee

Dear Mr. Doe:

I have the honor to inform you that the Library has received a gift from Mr. and Mrs. James S. Blank to be used to buy books in memory of your wife, Caroline Smith Doe. Each volume purchased with this gift will carry her name on an appropriate bookplate and will be a permanent addition to the Library, to be used by many generations of students.

We very much appreciate this lasting and thoughtful tribute, as we know you will.

Sincerely yours,
William H. Jesse

LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT AT

WHERE
GRADUATE STUDY & RESEARCH
ARE
KEYS TO TOMORROW

"Imagine that we had it in our power to call up the shades of the greatest and wisest men that ever existed, and oblige them to converse with us on the most interesting topics—what an inestimable privilege should we think it! How superior to all common enjoyment. But in a well-furnished library, we, in fact, possess this power.

----- John Aiken
