RE: SUMMARY OF MEETING OF COMMISSION FOR BLACKS ON JANUARY 23, 1980

The Commission For Blacks, after five meetings, long hours of deliberations, discussions, intensive investigations of official documents, memoranda, correspondences, and after hearing a dialogue via a tape recording between Mr. Dennie Littlejohn and Dean William Byas, has concluded to support Dean Byas's position to transfer Mr. Littlejohn. This support was given without a dissenting vote and with Chairperson, Dr. Luther M. Kindall, abstaining.

Although the intent of the Commissioners' conclusion may be misinterpreted or misunderstood by some students, it was the only conclusion the Commission could make for the benefit and the welfare of the students for whom the Commission serves, based on the data and on the knowledge that the Commission had concerning the situation.

Permission was given to the Commission Secretary to initiate this document for Dr. Luther M. Kindall who has been hospitalized.
