President Brown Ayers,
University of Tennessee.

My dear Mr. Ayers:-

I am just in receipt of your letter of the 6th inst. Also copy of your acknowledgment of Mrs. French's letter. - I think it good.

I am sending you copy of my letter acknowledging hers, under date of August 31st. I forward this A. M. my letter to Rev. Baylor, President of the Pastors' Union - a copy of which I sent you - also copy of letter I wrote Mr. Bolton Smith and his approval of letter to Dr. Baylor. Of course he having been Chairman and formulated the report of our Committee's findings I wanted him to know my reply to Dr. Baylor. I think this correspondence should be in your files.

I only want to add this - I do not know your Professor, but he displayed very poor judgment in accepting an invitation to lecture before an organization of ladies at a private house on so delicate a subject as that involved.

Very respectfully,

HCE/ASA
