Manchester, Tennessee 5-8-23.

President H. A. Morgan,
Knoxville, Tenn.

Dear Doctor Morgan:

Please pardon me for the interruption but I desire to congratulate and commend you for the dismissal of Dr. Sprowl for teaching infidelity or Evolution in our State University.

If you should decide to carry on the fight to a successful finish, the people of the State will, I feel sure, stand by you.

There is too much of this. Any of it is too much. If it ever gets to where an expression of the people of this section is worth anything to you, we shall give it to you in no unmistakable terms.

We appreciate your sending us a good man for the Address at the High School and are looking forward to same with much interest. We were very sorry indeed that you could not come yourself.

Thanking you again and with best wishes,

I am.

Your friend,

L. E. Summers
