

University of Tennessee, Knoxville
TRACE: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange

Charles W. Dabney, 1887-1904

Office of the President

8-28-1923

Letter and Enclosed Newspaper Clipping from the Harriman Record to Dr. H.A. Morgan from R.B. Cassell

R.B. Cassell

Follow this and additional works at: https://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_dabn

Recommended Citation

"Letter and Enclosed Newspaper Clipping from the Harriman Record to Dr. H.A. Morgan from R.B. Cassell" President's Papers, AR-0001. University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Special Collections.
https://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_dabn/176

This Dabney Letters is brought to you for free and open access by the Office of the President at TRACE: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Charles W. Dabney, 1887-1904 by an authorized administrator of TRACE: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact trace@utk.edu.

R. B. CASSELL

ATTORNEY AT LAW

HARRIMAN, TENN.

PRACTICE IN STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS

August 28, 1923.

Dr. H. A. Morgan,
University of Tennessee,
Knoxville, Tennessee.

Dear Sir:-

As promised, I am enclosing you herewith clipping from the Harriman Record of date August twentythird.

Very respectfully yours,

R. B. Cassell

RBC:M

Wheat prices down to the bottom, but, yes, we have no reduced prices on bread to day. Sung to the tune: "Old dog towser went, bow wow and the woodchuck, now, now."

Devil's grippe is spreading fast.—Headline. This will be shocking news to a certain religious sect. "No devil, no nothing," is its creed.

If our correspondents will get their news in by Tuesday it will be a great help to us, and will do away with—"To late for last week." Please friends, mail your news Monday if at all possible.

If our advertisers will get their copy to us by Tuesday afternoon it will be much appreciated by us. We are embarrassed when the paper comes out late, and our advertisers are displeased, and the people kick, and— — HELP US, WILL YOU.

An attorney-general is a man of many trials.—Nashville Banner. And some of his trials are almost more than the people can bear.

The man who says he doesn't mind being bald holds the world's record as a philosopher or liar.—Chattanooga Times. Maybe so. But what about the baldheaded barber who tells him he has a sure-thing hair restorer?

John R. Neal to fight for school changes.—Headline. Shine your shoes and change your linen first, John.

Do motor cars make us lazy?—Headline. They've made a "human" frog of us.

Fish not brain food.—Headl' Never mind the brain. Just r big dish of fish in the center table, surround it with and coffee, invite us chair up and set wants to sit make r

It
ins."
nat
dy,
hey
ned
ould
are
ding
onsi-
esent
nat's
level
an-
eople
aven
in-
Old
with
nal-
orld
to
of
cal
the
ght
if
of
ng
d
ar
ere
of
im-
dark-
one
bring
rence
as an
wn in
peace
e ar-
ribile
oun-
like
OU
vill
ou

ma
sec
feel
stru
V
line
D
have
w
it
o