The Journal of Applied Sport Management is a peer-reviewed scholarly journal that provides cutting-edge applied research in the field of sport management. The mission of the journal is to develop, advance, disseminate, promote, and preserve knowledge within the academic discipline of sport management by providing an outlet that is both grounded in academic theory and driven by the needs of practitioners and the environment of the sport industry. Areas of interest include, but are not limited to, the following sport management subdisciplines: organizational behavior/theory, marketing, law, economics, finance, facility/event management, communication and media relations, sponsorship and sales, and governance, and ethics. The journal is published in cooperation with the Southern Sport Management Association (SSMA).

The Journal of Applied Sport Management (print: ISSN 2327-0179, online: 2327-0187) is published and printed quarterly by Sagamore Publishing LLC, 1807 N. Federal Drive, Urbana, IL, 61801.
