The Biltmore Park Town Square is a mixed-use development located in Asheville, North Carolina. It was developed by the Biltmore Estate, a historic site known for its estates and gardens. The development concept was inspired by the original Biltmore Estate and its surrounding landscape. The site is designed to accommodate a variety of uses, including retail, office, residential, and hotel space, with a strong emphasis on pedestrian-friendliness and community spaces. The mixed-use development encourages a sense of place and promotes sustainable living through its design. The Biltmore Park Town Square serves as a model for smart growth, integrating commercial, residential, and recreational areas to create a vibrant, walkable community. It aims to reduce reliance on cars, promote healthy lifestyles, and enhance the quality of life for its residents and visitors.
