Office of the Chancellor/The University of Tennessee, Knoxville/506 Andy Holt Tower/Knoxville, Tennessee 37916

December 8, 1976

Ms. Cynthia Butler
2200 Highland #1
Knoxville, TN 37916

Dear Cynthia:

The concept of shared authority and responsibility which characterizes the ideal of collegial governance is demonstrated by the administrative committees of UTK. In these committees, students, faculty and staff from a variety of sectors of the University community come together to guide the operations of the institution.

It is with great pleasure that I ask you to be a member of two such groups, the Commission for Women and the Commission for Blacks. The charges to these Commissions are attached, along with lists of all persons being asked to share this responsibility with you this year.

I sincerely hope that you will accept these appointments, and that you will find the work of the Commissions to be both interesting and instructive. The appointments are effective immediately and will extend until August 31, 1977. Please inform my office (Ms. Taylor, #3288) of your decision by December 15.

Thank you.

Best wishes,

Jack E. Reese
Chancellor
