Gentlemen: Attention Professor N.W. Dougherty

As requested by you we made an investigation of the title of property #926 S. Fifteenth St., owned by John H. Welcker and wife Maud Welcker, since August 16, 1926, on which date John H. Welcker and wife conveyed the back portion of the lot to the University of Tennessee. As a result of this investigation we find the following condition as to this title:

The property is owned by John H. Welcker and wife Maud Welcker free and clear of any encumbrances except the following:

(1) Unpaid State and County taxes for 1927, 1928 and 1929, the property not having been assessed during these years.

(2) Unpaid City taxes for 1929.

(3) Unpaid State, County and City taxes for 1930.

We prepared the deed conveying the property from John H. Welcker and wife to the University of Tennessee, which deed has been duly executed and is herewith enclosed. We required John H. Welcker to pay the 1927, 1928 and 1929 State and County taxes, and likewise the 1929 City taxes, receipts for which are likewise enclosed herewith.

The Tax Assessor for the State and County advised us that the property will not be assessed for 1930 taxes, inasmuch as the property is being acquired by the University. The Tax Assessor for the City of Knoxville has refused to release the property from the payment of 1930 city taxes. Inasmuch as the property has not been assessed, it was impossible for this tax to be paid, and we have therefore required John H. Welcker to issue check payable to the University of Tennessee, for $65.00, which we have had certified by the East Tennessee National Bank. We gave Welcker a receipt in accordance with the wording enclosed herewith. In other words, if you are able to get the property released from 1930 taxes, the check is to be returned to Welcker, otherwise, same is to be cashed and the taxes paid from the proceeds.

A statement for our services is herewith enclosed.

Yours very truly,

Ayres & Broughton
