2011 Notable UT Woman

Jenny Moshak
The 2011 Notable UT Woman is Jenny Moshak, who is in her twenty-first year with the Lady Vols, where she directs all sports medicine, athletic training, rehabilitation, and strength and conditioning of the athletes. She created Team ENHANCE, a unique program that promotes a healthy culture for Lady Vol student-athletes, guiding their nutritional, mental and emotional aspects of performance.

Moshak also has served as an adjunct instructor for the Department of Exercise, Sport, and Leisure Studies for the past twenty years. She is a dedicated teacher and often takes time to mentor students outside the classroom and training room to help them develop general life skills. Moshak also is well-known for her role as one of the longest-serving and most active members of the chancellor's LGBT commission.

The Notable UT Woman honor is awarded to women from three rotating categories—administrator, alumnae, faculty and staff—who have made outstanding contributions to the university. The Notable UT Woman Award is presented by the Commission for Women. Every year since 1995, the Commission for Women has recognized a woman whose accomplishments bring distinction to the university.
